

DESCRIPTION

Situated among Virginia's wine country, this privately offered 10,600± sq ft mountain estate overlooks 50+ miles of sweeping Blue Ridge Mountain views. Set on 15 acres in Amherst County, Belle View presents a rare opportunity to enjoy the serenity of a private mountain residence while benefiting from the infrastructure already in place for hospitality, retreat, and income-producing use. Currently enjoyed primarily as a private residence with limited short-term rental operations, the property includes 8 private guest accommodations with en-suite bathrooms, a separate owner's residence/wing, and an additional 3-bedroom apartment unit. Historically operated as an addiction recovery center, the property fostered a peaceful and restorative experience through practices like yoga and equine therapy. Institutional-grade systems, robust utilities, and a thoughtfully designed layout naturally support group stays, retreats, and guest accommodations. Beyond lodging, the estate was later expanded to host weddings, large gatherings, and a winery tasting room, featuring multiple event or ceremony location options, a dedicated bridal suite, ample on-site parking, a secondary building with bar and restroom, and a 40x60 engineered concrete event slab with integrated tent anchoring infrastructure and underlying preparation for future structural expansion if desired. Whether envisioned as a fully scaled hospitality or event-driven business, a retreat destination, or simply enjoyed as a serene private mountain home, the groundwork is already in place for a buyer ready to build upon the property's exceptional versatility and untapped potential.
